

This cover from Life Magazine, November 27, 1931, gave hope to an America struggling through the deepest depression it has ever experienced. I think those of us challenged by the economy of the new millennium can take a good lesson from the determined angel—to take charge of our attitude and with determination, enterprise, perseverance, resolution, encouragement, sanity, spirit, imitative and optimism now, overcome all. To make a mini-poster to hang on your bulletin board, print on plain white paper and cut out. I recommend the use of heavy card stock. Be sure to set your printer for the type of paper you use. Print size will be 4.5.x 5 inches. With compliments from Bonnie Boots, The

Internet Wizards Magazine

<http://www.theinternetwizards.com>